Boston Regional Exam Center

In order to obtain your license, you must take your application materials in person to a USCG regional Exam Center (REC). Boston is one of several REC's nationwide, and the full list can be viewed online at:

<http://www.uscg.mil/STCW/mmic-regions.htm>

Address:

U.S.Coast Guard
Marine Safety Office
Regional Examination Center
455 Commercial Street
Boston, MA 02109-1045
Phone: (617) 223-3040

Hours:

Monday through Thursday 8am-4pm
CLOSED FRIDAYS
Closed on all Federal holidays

How long does it take to receive the license?

You will not receive your license until an FBI background check has been completed- this can take anywhere from 2-10 weeks. Once the background check has been completed, the USCG will mail you your Captains License.

You can check the status of your application online, or by calling the REC. To check your application status online, go to:

<http://www.uscg.mil/stcw/downloads.htm>

and click on "Application Status"
